Financial Affairs. Nothing worthy of special note occurred in Third-street yesterday. The demand for Money was brisker, but the supply continued good, and the Discount houses were taking all the approved Paper offered by their customers at 10@12 per cent., and would have takin more, if they had had an opportunity. In certain quarters Eastern Exchange was a little heavy, but in others it was tolerably steady, although less so than it had been. Most dealers were disinclined to give over % to outside parties, though they paid % to 34 to outside parties, though they paid 34 to their depositors and asked 34 prem. for their signatures as before. There was some cut-ting-under, and would have been a good de if Currency had been scarce. Gold was steady, but quiet, at 34 buying and % selling, and New Orleans Sight Ex-change firm at par and 34 prem., with very light offerings.

Time-bills and Uncurrent Money ranged as they did all last week; rates being as they then were.

The New York and New Orleans telegrams to the Chamber of Commerce yesterday showed no important changes and produced no effect on our market. Flour continued no effect on our market. Flour continued dail and heavy here, without change in price, the sales being very light. Whisky was steady, with sales of 1,375 brls. Provisions were dull and unchanged at previous quotations. Wheat was in better demand, and closed steady. Corn, Rye and prime Barley continued firm, and Cats, in consequence of large receipts, were dull.

quence of large receipts, were dull.

Hogs continued quiet yesterday, without change in prices—the old difference of 10 15c. still remaining between buyers and sellers. We heard of a sale of 500 very heavy Hogs at $5 70 gross, for the first twenty days of next month—equal to $6 82 per, central net, and of 200 head for the first half of December at $6 37)4 net.

Yesterday's Courrier says of Monday's Louisville Provision market:

Mess Purk remains very dull, with but a small demand to fill Southern orders at $15.50, at which price the market closed very dull, with more sellers than largers. There is a strong disposition manifested on the part of holders to realize, but they are unable to find purchasers. The demand for Bacon continues small, and to-day a decline of size, was catablished on Shoulders, with a good demand at $460, the declined price; otherwise there was no change in prices, the transactions being at 125e. for ribs side, 135e for clear rib, and 15c. for clear file, for place carriaged, and these for super-cured. The Money market continues easy—6%.67 per cent. for good Paper—remarkably so for Octuber, and the Exchanges low, benden being quoted 105%65.00% for best Bankers, while the Stock Exchange is excited to an extraordinary degree, and prices greatly depressed from day to day by the political agitation which precedes the Presidential election, and the apprehension and concern watched, and the southern me and to the Presidential election, and the apprehension and concern watched in through the Southern Recease to the effect on business of the authorized election of Mr Lincoln. That those influences would fail of the damaging consequents to the market, if not pertinactionly urged and perhaps exaggerated by some of the leading speculators for the fail, whose present ancessed leads a potential power to their regimens, is quite certain.
